Nature of Position

The Leisure Services Department requires multiple Imagination Park Camp Leaders to provide the delivery of summer programs to children between the ages of 5 - 12 at the Quesnel Arts and Recreation Centre. This position is open to all female and male applicants between the ages of 15 and 30 years of age.

We are looking for camp leaders who are enthusiastic, caring, and have experience working with school-aged children or in a similar camp environment. As a camp leader, you will be responsible for assisting with and implementing daily and weekly programs and activities, interacting with the children, planning activities that include sports and games, helping with daily site set-up and take-down, and supervising swimming sessions in a team environment.
